

Jaime Melton Anderson

Councilor, City of Trussville, Alabama – Place 3

Chief of Staff, Operational Energy-Innovation, Office of the Secretary of Defense

Jaime Melton Anderson is a 27-year veteran of the U.S. Air Force and currently serves part-time as a Lieutenant Colonel Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA) in the U.S. Air Force Reserves. As a full-time remote government contractor, she serves as the Chief of Staff for Operational Energy-Innovation (OE-I) in the Office of the Secretary of Defense, where she leads national efforts to accelerate operational energy technologies critical to defense readiness and sustainability.

Anderson was elected to the Trussville City Council (Place 3) in 2020 and is seeking re-election in 2025. A proud tenth-generation resident of Trussville and 1994 graduate of Hewitt-Trussville High School, she brings deep roots, global perspective, and a proven commitment to service.

A graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy (Class of '98), Anderson's military service includes assignments at the Pentagon, the U.S. Military Delegation to NATO, HQ Pacific Air Forces and USINDOPACOM, with expertise in strategic planning, joint operations, and energy policy. She holds a master's degree in education and multiple decorations including the Defense Meritorious Service Medal.

She is active in the Trussville Daybreak Rotary Club, serves on the board of Better Basics, is a Sustainer in the Junior League of Birmingham, and a member of Christ Church PCA. Jaime and her husband, Keith (also USAFA '98), have three grown children and two pups (Buddy and Max) and live in Trussville.

🔗 Learn more at: www.jaimemeltonanderson.com